

TOP 10 CONSIDERATIONS WHEN HIRING A HAZARDOUS MATERIAL TESTING AND REMOVAL COMPANY

Are you a homeowner, contractor, potential buyer or seller looking to test and remove hazardous materials such as asbestos and lead? If so, you need a reliable and experienced company to do the job right. In this guide, we'll go over the top 10 considerations you should keep in mind when choosing a hazardous material testing and removal company.

1. Experience: Look for a company with a proven track record of successful hazardous material testing and removal.
2. Certification: Ensure the company is certified and licensed to perform the work.
3. Insurance: Make sure the company is fully insured for your protection.
4. Equipment: Check that the company has the necessary equipment to perform the job safely and efficiently.
5. Safety record: Ask about the company's safety record and procedures for protecting employees and clients.

6. Customer Service: Look for a company that values its clients and provides excellent customer service.
7. Pricing: Get quotes from multiple companies and compare pricing to ensure you're getting a fair deal.
8. Reputation: Check the company's reputation and read reviews from previous clients.
9. Communication: Look for a company that communicates clearly and effectively throughout the process.
10. Follow-up: Ensure the company provides follow-up services and is available for any questions or concerns after the job is done.
